

S1 ASSEMBLY

6 November 2018

School Prayer

Jesus, as a child you grew in learning and wisdom.
Bless Saint Ninian's High School,
a community of faith and love
where young people learn,
work and grow together.
Help us to make our school a place
where teachers are valued for their dedication;
where pupils are encouraged to develop their talents
and where all staff, young people and parents - work together
in trust and friendship.
Live among us now and forever.

Amen

Venerable Margaret Sinclair Novena

There is a Novena in the Oratory every Monday at 12.40pm asking for the intercession of the Venerable Margaret Sinclair.

Our main intention will be for members of our school community – including family and friends – who are ill.

We hope that parents, families and friends will be able to join us for this Novena.

We would also invite anyone who cannot manage to our Oratory at this time to join with us in prayer.

The Rosary

Join us to pray The Rosary every Friday in the Oratory, 12.25 – 1pm.

The Rosary is a prayer we can all say together with Mary, the Mother of God, who always grants our request.

*“The Rosary is my favourite prayer.”
“Pray, pray much. Say the Rosary everyday”*

Pope John Paul II
(1978-2005)

Remembrance Day

11 NOVEMBER

In Flanders Fields

poem by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, 3 May 1915

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

lest we forget

A photograph of red poppies with the text 'Remembrance Day' overlaid. The background is a soft, warm orange glow, and a single red poppy is in sharp focus on the right side.

Remembrance Day

*Never forget,
Always remember.*

Armistice Day

Armistice Day is the 11th November (the day on which the armistice was signed to end the First World War - at 11.00am on the 11th day of the eleventh month).

Remembrance Sunday is the Sunday nearest to Armistice Day and is the national day of remembrance in the UK. Schools mark remembrance of the war dead on a suitable day around this time.

In recent years, the custom of stopping for the 2-minutes silence at 11.00am on 11th November has grown enormously and is widely practiced in public places. You may wish to use the resource during prayers on Thursday or Friday.

As the world commemorates the centenary of the end of the First World War, you may wish to use these visuals with your own two minute silence to commemorate the millions of lives lost during WW1.

Armistice Day

For many years, the contributions of African and Caribbean servicemen to the First World War has been largely forgotten and underexplored. The war's centenary (2014-2019) has presented the opportunity to revisit this history, and to re-examine and rediscover African and Caribbean involvement. It is now recognised that the assistance and service of over 2 million Africans and 16,000 Caribbeans, not to mention the countless Black Britons that joined British regiments, made a considerable and significant impact in terms of manpower and resources.

MONTH of the HOLY SOULS

The Month of the Holy Souls

During November throughout the world those who have died are especially remembered and prayed for by the Catholic community. The Commemoration of the Dead begins on second day of the month and is commonly known as All Souls when Catholics pray for the dead as they continue, ahead of the living, the journey into the fullness God's Light.

Catholics also pray for those who are left behind and are still grieving. These prayers continue throughout the month of November, with people encouraged to visit a church or cemetery to pray. Know that, whatever your faith background, you and your loved ones will be prayed for and remembered during November.

Jesus Christ conquered death through his own suffering and death on a cross and by his resurrection. In Him is the source of our hope and light whatever darkness we might currently face.

His love for us and those that we love is endless.

Poems of Remembrance

WHEN YOU GO HOME

*When you go home, tell them of us and say
For their tomorrow, we gave our today.*

By John Maxwell Edmonds (1875-1958) wrote the famous epitaph in the Kohima Allied war cemetery. It was used by The Times newspaper to announce the lists of the war dead

FOR THE FALLEN

*They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning
We will remember them.
We will remember them.*

by Robert Laurence Binyon (1869-1943), published in The Times newspaper on 21st September 1914. This poem is often used in remembrance services - most usually the one verse sometimes with the preceding verse

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Prayer

Prayers for the Dead and Grieving
Father of mercies and God of all consolation,
N. is gone now from this earthly dwelling and has left us behind mourning his/her absence.

Let us find in your Son, Jesus,
comfort in our sadness,
certainty in our doubt,
and courage to live through this hour.
Make our faith strong
Through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Solemnity of All Saints on being a Saint

During his visit to Scotland & England in 2010, Pope Benedict XVI said:

"Perhaps some of you think being a saint is not for you. Let me explain what I mean. When we are young, we can usually think of people that we look up to, people we admire, people we want to be like. We live in a celebrity culture, and young people are often encouraged to model themselves on figures from the world of sport or entertainment.

My question for you is this: what are the qualities you see in others that you would most like to have yourselves?

What kind of person would you really like to be?"
