Yes (100%)    No (0%)

Comments:

*It gave more information on the options available and the requirements and qualities of a teacher.
Yes, I found out more information about what it was really like to be a teacher.
Yes – informed me about UCAS – feeling more confident.
I found it very help to hear from both NQTs and experienced teacher. I also found it very informative and am now aware of the different ways to get into Primary Teaching.
Motivating and enthusiastic speakers. Motivated me to study education at university.
The event was very well organised and the speakers etc. were very inspirational.
Really helped with personal statement advice.
Very meaningful. Very helpful and learnt so many things to help with statement.
It widened my knowledge on courses and universities and different paths I can take after S6.
Yes, as I got to understand what the needs were for teaching.
The speakers were very interesting and helpful.
It was beneficial hearing from teachers from all different sectors and learning about admission to university and the generally qualities of teachers.
I enjoyed hearing about the experiences of the NQT's and found it very interesting.
Yes, allowed me to be more secure in my decision. Helped to clear up any issues etc.
Key speakers were excellent, extremely informative with relevant information.*

3. Was the format suitable?

Yes (100%)    No (0%)

Comments:

*I enjoyed that there was an option to speak to different people who had expertise in the areas.
Yes, I found out lots of different information as there were lots of different opinions on certain things.
Organised. Informal and Formal. Enjoyed talking to various different groups.
I liked being able to talk to each person and hear their views and experiences.
Organised – focus groups allowed questions to be asked and answered. Well presented.
I found the focus groups effective as it allowed us to speak to a variety of people.
The smaller groups at the end gave a good opportunity to ask questions.
Very suitable as lots/enough time for each group.
I liked the layout of smaller groups as you are able to ask questions easily and you can have a closer 1 on 1 with teachers.
I liked talking to different types of teachers and knowing how they got into teaching.
Liked hearing all the different stories on how everyone got to where they are now. Going round the tables was very good, as you were in smaller groups, so far more comfortable asking questions.
Yes, I enjoyed the follow-up group work time.
I thought the format was great way to allow pupils/parents to ask questions in a smaller group.
Small groups made it easier to ask questions.
Well organised, stations were great idea, encouraging pupils to give their opinion and view.*
