Why Are People Hungary

Some people do not have all their meals and no extra snacks. ✓

People are too poor to buy food

Because they don't have enough money to buy the food. ✓

Food is not shared out fairly

Poor farmers are not allowed to sell their food to rich countries

Because they do not have large amounts of food that will fill the country. ✓

People can't grow food because of wars

The best land is used to grow food for other countries

People in rich countries don't give enough to charities

Farmers don't use new ways of growing more food

There is not enough food to go round

There are too many people
