

The Scottish Fisheries Museum invites you to submit a short film for consideration at the inaugural

'Cannes-struther' International Short Film Festival 'On the Edge'

To celebrate the Year of Homecoming, the Commonwealth Games in Scotland and our own 'Distant Shores' exhibition, we are asking you to share with us your short films on the theme of coastal life.

Films can be in any format - documentary, animation, stop motion, archive, drama - and should be between 6-12 minutes in length. It's a family affair so we also ask that your film is suitable for everyone to watch! For full details please see further information and guidelines at www.scotfishmuseum.org/events/view/47/festival-of-museums-2014

Submission by Thursday 1st May 2014

Winners will be announced at a Glamorous Gala Event at the Scottish Fisheries Museum on Saturday 17th May

