- What happened to the main characters? Why did this happen?
- What could have happened?
- What would happen if you treated people like the characters in the story?
- How would people treat you?
- How would you have treated the characters differently?

- Which characters were friends?
- How did they treat each other?
- Which character were not friends/ were rivals?
- How did they behave to each other?
- Would you like them to be your friends?
- How would you treat the characters?

- Should you read other people's messages without permission?
- How should you treat people online/ if they are not in the same room as you?
- What does a nice message sound like?
- How should people treat you?
- What should you do if you get a message that upsets you?
- Who can you talk to if someone is not treating you properly?

- How can people talk to each other with technology? Telephone calls, text messages, chatting on the computer, etc.
- How do people treat each other when they are doing this?
- Do grown ups/ older siblings say things to people when playing games or on their phones?
- Do you know who is reading the messages? Can they be shared with others?
- Can your messages make people feel happy/ sad/ excited/ lonely/ cared for/ etc.?