

Free Period Products

Fife Council work in partnership with Hey Girls. Hey Girls is a non-profit organisation supporting women to access free period products.

By scanning the QR code you can order free period products and have these delivered to your home.

PickUpMyPeriod is an app run by the Scottish Government which shows you places in the local community where people can pick up free sanitary products.

Kindness

Respect

Determination