January 2022

The National 5 English prelim will consist of two papers:

	Time	Marks	Format	Revision
Paper 1: Reading for Understanding, Analysis and Evaluation (RUAE)	1 hour	30	<ul> <li>One non-fiction passage with questions</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>In your own words questions</li> <li>Word choice/imagery/sentence structure questions</li> <li>Use of language questions</li> <li>Conclusion questions</li> </ul>
Paper 2: Critical Essay	1.5 hours	20	<ul> <li>Write one critical essay on a short story (The Pedestrian)</li> <li>Unseen essay question</li> <li>You will not have your notes or the story text in the exam</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Revise 'The Pedestrian'. You should know about plot, character, theme and techniques in your story.</li> <li>Learn 8-10 quotations and analysis for each</li> <li>Revise how to structure a critical essay</li> <li>Practise writing timed essays</li> </ul>
Scottish Set Text		20	<ul> <li>One printed poem and questions worth 20 marks</li> <li>First 12 marks of questions are about printed poem</li> <li>Final 8 mark question requires quotations from poems that are not printed in exam paper</li> <li>OR</li> <li>Questions on 'Sailmaker'</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Revise 'Visiting Hour,' 'The Way My Mother Speaks' and 'Originally.' You should know about content, themes and techniques.</li> <li>Learn 3-4 quotations and analysis from each poem.</li> <li>Ensure that you understand the formula for the final question.</li> <li>OR</li> <li>Revise 'Sailmaker.'</li> <li>Ensure that you understand the formula for the final question.</li> </ul>