

My Joyous Journey

Writing Metaphors and Similes

Using the poem 'My Longest Journey', you are going to write your own metaphor and simile winter journey poem; however, your poem will have a more positive point of view. First, fill in the plain English column to plan what you are going to write about. Then go back and write metaphors and similes for each line. For example, you might describe a group of snowmen in a park full of children throwing snow balls as, 'silent white residents watch with coal-eyes smile and listen to echoes of laughter and dull thuds of snow grenades'.
