Relationships, Sexual Health and Parenthood Education (RSHP):

This is a core part of our school curriculum and parents/carers can find out more about the lessons that their child will be taking part in by following this link - About the resource - RSHP. If you have any questions please contact the school to arrange an opportunity to discuss further.

These lessons are taught by stage as follows:

P1 – Early Level	P5 – Second Level – To Begin
P2 – First Level – To begin	P6 – Second Level – Progression 1
P3 – First Level - Progression 1	P7 – Second Level – Progression 2
P4 – First Level – Progression 2

This block of learning will take place during term 3 and term 4.

HOPETOUN
SCOTLAND'S FINEST STATELY HOME

JUNIOR RANGER 2026 PROGRAMME

The Hopetoun Junior Ranger programme is a fun, educational, outdoor club for 11-18 year olds who are wild about nature, the countryside and conservation.

The group is led by the Hopetoun Ranger Service, and monthly Saturday afternoon sessions take place within the stunning grounds of Hopetoun House and the surrounding area.

Group members will enjoy benefits such as;

Spending time with others who enjoy the same interests

Developing new countryside management skills

Learning more about the work of Countryside Rangers

Gaining the Scottish Countryside Rangers' Association (SCRA) Junior Ranger Award

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP - £55 PER CHILD

Includes a branded hoodie and snacks

Sessions are subject to change and are weather-dependent
