Children & Youth Wellbeing in the Digital Era

Dear Parents/Carers

On Saturday the 28th of March we are holding a community event on Youth Wellbeing in the Digital Era in the learning loft at the Wardlaw museum, St Andrews. During the event Dr Chia Liu from the St Andrews School of Geography and Sustainability will present current research on this area, synthesised in take-home materials. After a break with refreshments an open discussion between participants will be facilitated by Dr Mary Freedman, focused on sharing experiences, thoughts and strategies.

This is a free event that aims to create an open and welcoming space for carers to talk and learn together! We would be grateful if it was possible to share the details of this event with your learning community, educators, parents and carers!

Please see the attached poster and eventbrite page here for more information.

Many thanks for your time and attention!
