Summer events for families at the Wardlaw and Bell Pettigrew Museums

Time Travelers: All Ages Activity Day

Saturday 18 July 2026

12.00pm–4.00pm

Wardlaw Museum, St Andrews

Step back in time and explore life in 16th-century Scotland at this free family activity day. Children and adults can try medieval games, dress up in historical costumes, create crafts and masks, and discover what life was like during the early years of Mary, Queen of Scots. With interactive activities, hands-on learning and plenty to explore, it's a great day out for families with children of all ages.

Code to the Crown: An Escape Room Experience

8 July – 14 August 2026

Various times

Bell Pettigrew Museum of Natural History, St Andrews

Can your family save the crown? In this immersive escape room adventure, teams work together to decode secret messages, uncover hidden clues and solve puzzles inspired by the story of Mary, Queen of Scots.

Designed for ages 10+, it's perfect for older primary pupils, secondary school students and families looking for a fun challenge over the summer holidays. The experience encourages teamwork, communication, problem-solving and critical thinking, all within a unique museum setting.
