The list above is not an exhaustive list. If staffing/volunteer availability allows we may be able to participate in other events as well. Please take into consideration that there is an administrative burden to coordinating our entries to all events so we attempt to spread things out across the academic session as best we can to alleviate this. In the summer term we tend to receive more invites and will sometimes take the decision to decline an invitation depending on how full the school diary already is. Parental understanding in relation to this is appreciated.
