

Reading Wall Challenge

Use this reading wall challenge to help you discover different books that interest you. Colour each brick once you have completed it - can you complete the whole wall?

A magazine or newspaper article

A book with illustrations on each page

A chapter book

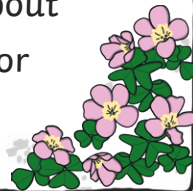

A book which was published between 1990 and 2022

A book which has a happy ending

A book which is set in the past

A non-fiction book about nature or science

A book which made you laugh

A book which has been made into a film

A book written by an author who has the same surname as you

A book with three words in the title

A book with two nouns in the title

A book written and illustrated by the same person

A book which is set in a different country

A book with a boy as the main character

A book based on a true story

A book written by a Scottish author

A book which has the word 'The' in the title

A book whose title has five or more syllables in it

A book which contains magic

