

Types of Comprehension Question

Literal

The answers to literal questions can be found in the text. You can point to them.

Inferential

To answer an inferential question, a reader looks for clues in the text and thinks about what makes sense.

Evaluative

These questions make the reader think about a situation in the book and ask them to give an opinion or idea about it.

