

S1-3 Social Subjects

S1 Social Subjects

The topics you will study in S1 Social Subjects are:

- The Holocaust
- Rights and Responsibilities
- Ebola
- Scottish Wars of Independence
- China
- Atlas and Mapping skills

If you think of any questions or want more information, please ask us.

The Holocaust

You will learn about:

- Real life people involved:
 - Perpetrators
 - Bystanders
 - Rescuers
 - Resisters
 - Victims.
- What was life like for each of these groups of people?

Rights and Responsibilities

You will learn about:

- What is a democracy?
- What rights and responsibilities do young people have in Scotland?
- Who do these compare with children from other countries around the world?

Ebola

You will learn about:

- Developed and developing countries
- Spread of disease
- Life in shanty towns
- Prevention of Ebola

Scottish Wars of Independence

You will learn about:

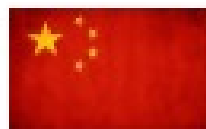

- What was life like in medieval times?
- The Succession Crisis
- The Battles of Stirling Bridge and Falkirk
- What happened to Scotland after Wallace's execution?

China

You will learn about:

- Comparison between life in China and Scotland?
- One Child Policy
- Law and order
- Tiananmen Square

Wild Weather

You will learn about:

- Formation of hurricanes and tornadoes.
- Hurricane Katrina case study
- The effect of wild weather on the developing world.

GEOGRAPHY

