

Home Area Resource Audit

Resources	Comments
Area characteristics
Well-defined and reflects common characteristics of a home
Bright, inviting and consistent
If possible the area should consist of more than one area of a home e.g. kitchen and living room as opposed to just a kitchen
Area should be situated next to role play, or have role play incorporated within it (see constant provisions)
Area should promote and allow for collaborative play
Resources presented in an accessible way for all children e.g. role play resources on a hanging rail
Constant Provisions (to be tidied/maintained daily)
Small sofa/chairs
Kitchen table with chairs (table cloth, vase and flowers)
Cooker/oven
Cupboard units
Sink
Washing machine
Books related to common interests
Real utensils (mixing and serving spoons, whisk, masher, fish slice, tongs)
Notepad and pens/pencils
Clock - displayed at children's level (digital and analogue)
Lamp to soften lighting
Enhancements to consider:
Real foods (tins, packets, pasta, boxes, fruit, veg)
Pots, pans, plates, bowls, cutlery
Oven gloves
Tea towels
Recipe books/cards
Calendar, diary, tv guide, catalogues, comics
Soft furnishings (cushions, rugs, plants, lamps, photo frames with pictures of the children)
Scales
Hoover
Telephone
Dustpan, brush, duster
A small selection of baby clothes (baby grow, bib, blanket)

Open ended role play resources e.g. scarves, material, hats, glasses, jewellery etc
Loose parts
Resources/enhancements linked to children's interests/special events e.g. babies, starting school, hospital etc
Bed
Curtains
Create a fireplace/window
Framed photographs of the children, possibly with their family
Plant (real or artificial)		