

How Many Trees?

Key fobs

Look at the front cover

- What can you see?
- How many trees are there?
- What types of animals can you see?
- Can you think of anything you have read or seen with animals in it before?
- Where do you think the story is set and why?
- What is your favourite thing about the front cover?

How Many Trees?

Start at the beginning of the story

- What is a forest?
- Have you ever been in a forest?
- Have you seen any trees before?
- Did they look the same or did they look different? Why?
- What lives in a forest?
- Can you think of any words to describe the picture of this forest?

How Many Trees?

- Which animal thinks they are king of the forest?
- What are the names of the three types of tree the bear likes?
- He then says he has changed his mind and has a new favourite. Which type is it?
- How many trees does the fox think makes a forest?
- How many trees do you think make a forest?

How Many Trees?

- Why would the animals need to hide from a hunter?
- Do you think the animals are being nice to each other? Why/why not?
- The little mouse says four trees make a forest. One for Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter. Which of those is your favourite season and why?
- What do you think came first? The seed or the tree?
- What was your favourite part of the story and why?
- Who was your favourite character and why?

