Hear: Read the first few pages together again

Say: Can you think of any words to describe Rocket? Jamal? Mum?

Play: Rocket has a love of rockets. Can you use different materials to create your own rocket? Is your rocket longer or shorter than other items you might find? Can you think of any words to describe your rocket?

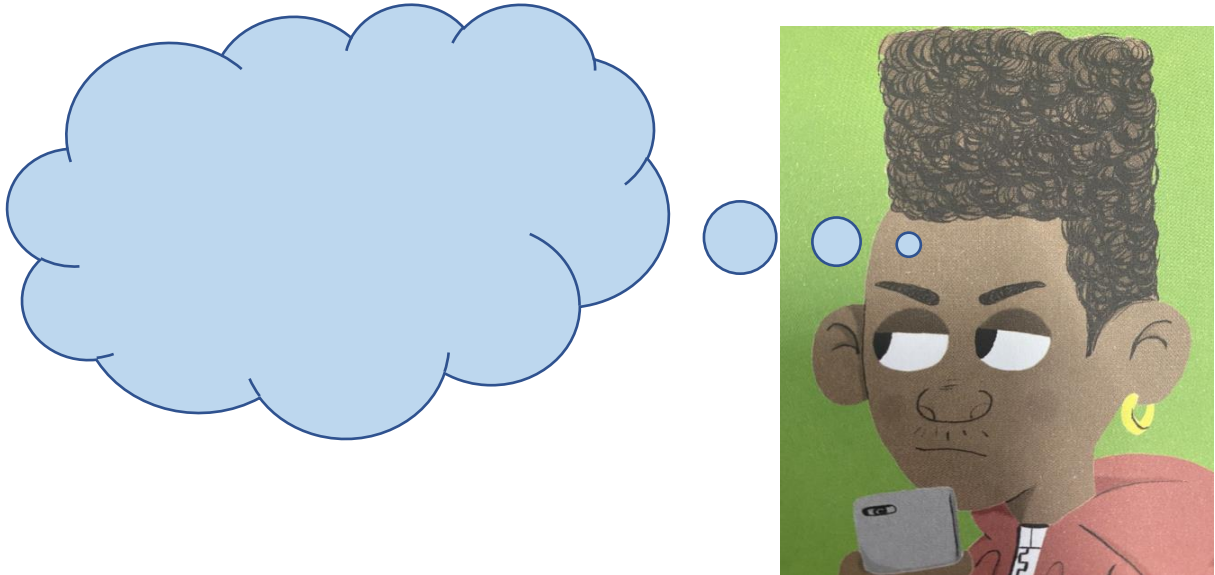

Write: What do you think each character is thinking about? Write down your ideas in the thought bubbles.

Say: Do you think Jamal and Rocket like each other? Do you think Jamal is being kind to his sister?

Play: Can you think of any games that Jamal could play with Rocket? What games do you like to play? Play a game with a friend or family member.

Write: Write down what you think Jamal might be thinking.

Write: If you were Rocket, what would you say to Jamal? Write a text message from Rocket to Jamal.

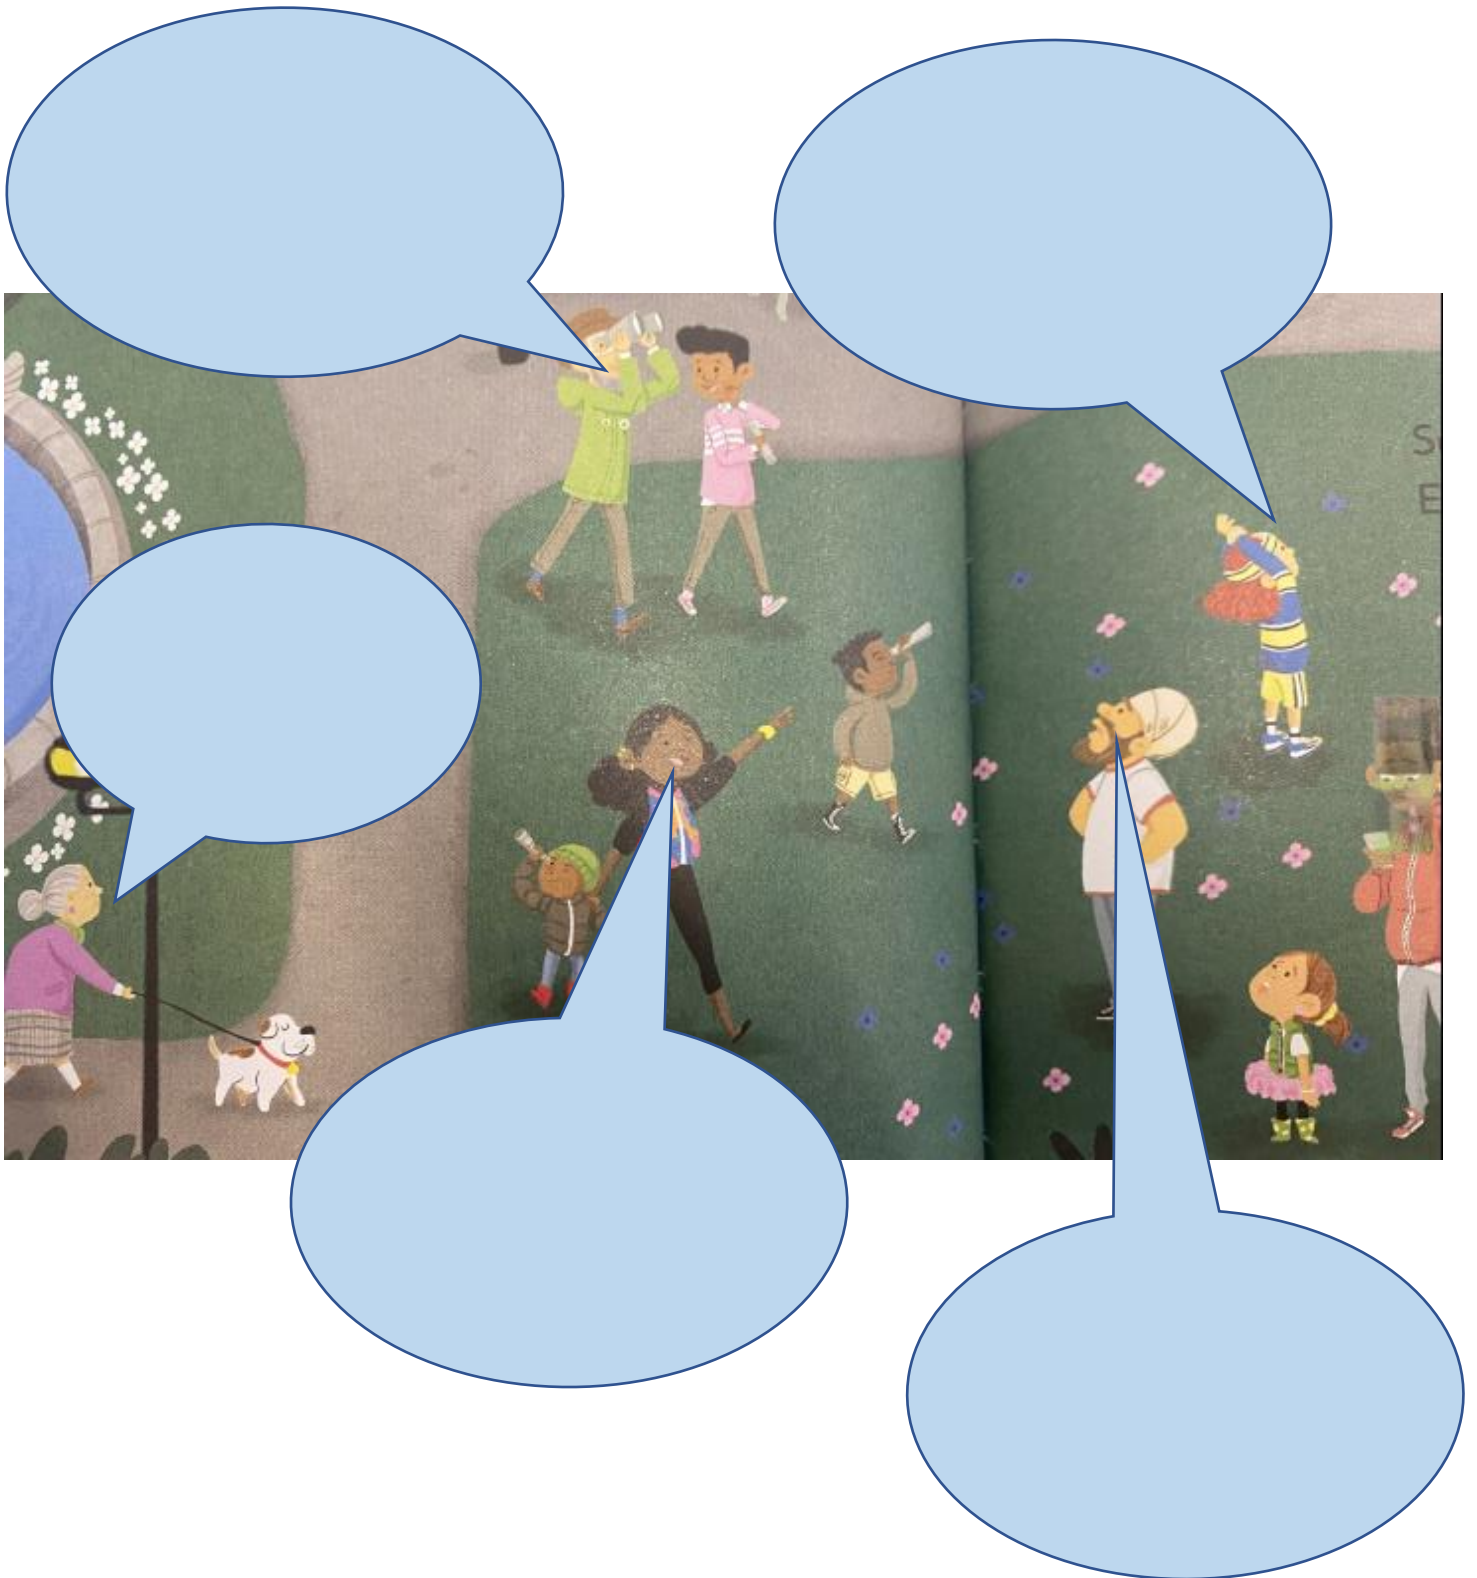

- Hi Jamal....
- I am sad because...
- Would you like to...

Say: Would you have liked to go and see the meteor shower? Do you know any facts about space? What would you like to know?

Play: Rocket, Jamal and all the other adults and children gather in the park. What are your favourite things to do in the park? Can you use different materials to design or build your own park? What items do you have in your park?

Write: Write down what you think each character might say as they gather in the park for the meteor shower.

Say: Did you enjoy the story? If you could give the story a new title, what would it be and why?

Write: Write a new title for the story. Use what you have read to help you design a new front cover using the template below.
