

New Authors

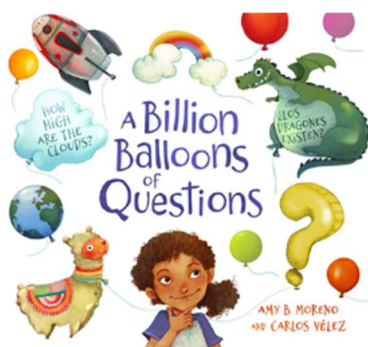

New Activities

New Authors Programme- Children

Amy B. Moreno

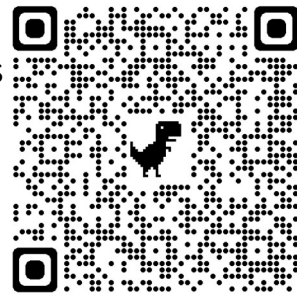

A Billion Balloons of Questions

Woodside Library, Saturday 4th February, 2pm, Ages 4-7, Ticketed- Free

Eva's life is full of big balloons of questions that she carries around all day -- until she finds the answer she's looking for. A humorous and heart-warming bilingual story about young children's natural curiosity -- with warm and vibrant illustrations.

Join author Amy for a fun interactive session involving a reading of the book followed by an art activity

Free to attend
Book via QR Code

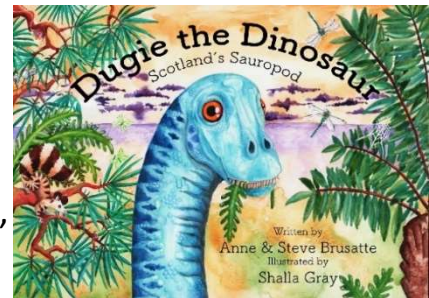

Anne & Steve Brusatte

Dugie the Dinosaur

Bridgeton Library, Saturday 11th February, 2pm, Ages 3-8, Ticketed- Free

Did you know that dinosaurs once lived in Scotland, and that paleontologists today find dinosaur bones and footprints on the Isle of Skye? Author Anne Brusatte and paleontologist Steve Brusatte take you back to Scotland's Jurassic park 170 million years ago, with their story Dugie the Dinosaur.

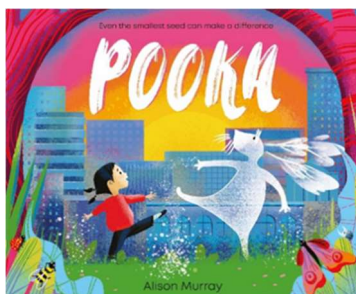

Free to attend
Book via QR Code

Followed by a fun craft activity and the chance to ask Steve - a paleontologist at the university of Edinburgh - anything you want to know about dinosaurs!

Alison Murray

Pooka

Milton Library, Saturday 4th March, 2pm, Ages 3-8, Ticketed- Free

Visually striking and sensitively told, Pooka is the story of one small girl who is empowered by a visit from a magical nature sprite to positively transform her city.

Join author Alison for a reading of her empowering tale about believing in yourself no matter how small you may feel, followed by a fun craft activity

Free to attend
Book via QR Code