Head Teacher - Fiona Young

25/6/24

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends of Ibrox Primary School and Nursery,

I am writing to you for the final time this session. I can't believe that is us at the end of term - I feel as though I have blinked and June has disappeared!

We've had another wonderful year at Ibrox. So many amazing moments which are all celebrated in the end of year highlights video which is on our YouTube channel. You can access this via our school blog. It will go live at 9.30am on 26th June (tomorrow).

The success of our school and nursery relies on the efforts of everyone involved in school life - all staff in the school, the partners we are supported by, our families and finally our children. THANK YOU to you all.

Primary 7 and our staff leavers - Miss Sajjad, Miss Smith and Amanda (nursery) - will be treated to the tradition that is the Ibrox Tunnel of Love, as they leave Ibrox for the final time, when school finishes for summer at 1pm. Parents / carers, friends and family are welcome to come into the playground for this from 12.55pm. Hopefully lots of you will be able to make it along.

We look forward to welcoming the children back to school on Wednesday 14th August at 9am (9.30am for our new Primary 1s).

Finally, we hope everyone has a wonderful summer break. Have fun and stay safe.

From,

Fiona Young, Gail Chalmers & Sarah McDonnell
