

Inferring

I can read 'between the lines' to find the hidden meaning.

Before reading...

Look at the front cover and blurb.

What does the design of the front cover tell you about the book?

During reading...

What did that sentence really mean?

How is the character feeling?
Was there a hidden meaning?

After reading...

Re-read some of the key events, can you find any more meaning in the text?

Note down some of the phrases that helped you to infer the meaning.
