

Scanning

I can search the text for key words and phrases.

Before reading...

Search the front cover, the blurb and in the text for key information:

Who are the main characters?

Where is the text set?

What is the theme/genre?

During reading...

Scan the text for additional details about what you have read, to help you get a better understanding of the meaning.

After reading...

Scan ahead to find additional information about the main character(s).

Scan for key words that you have read to help you answer questions about the text.