

The entire page is framed by a decorative border of books. At the top, a row of closed books in various colors (blue, green, yellow, purple) is interspersed with four open books showing their pages. The sides are lined with tall stacks of closed books. At the bottom, another row of closed books is interspersed with four open books. In the center background, a large, faint open book is visible.

Skimming

I can quickly look through the text to get an idea of what it will be about.

Before reading...

Quickly glance over the blurb and flick through the book to get an idea of chapter titles and any words and pictures that stand out.

What does this tell you about the book?

During reading...

If you're stuck on the meaning of a word quickly glance ahead to see if there are any clues that can help you.

After reading...

Quickly glance through the book to find the key events that you want to discuss in your summary or book review.

Glance ahead at what comes next to help you with your prediction.