

Visualising

I can imagine a picture of the scene, characters and events in my head.

Before reading...

Look at the front cover and blurb.

Shut your eyes and try to recall details of the front cover.

During reading...

Stop reading occasionally and try to picture what you have read in your head.

After reading...

Shut your eyes and try to visualise key parts of the story.

Sketch or draw some of the main events or characters.