College and University applications are coming!

- Colleges will open for January course applications mid November, and August courses mid January.
- University UCAS application need to be submitted to the school by November.
- We will be running workshops in school over the October holiday to support college applications for those who feel they could do with a little support to write their personal statements, so they can apply as soon as the courses open.
- Arrange a 1:1 coaching guidance appointment with careers adviser and use the personality tools on www.myworldofwork.co.uk to generate career ideas.

First come, first served!

- Many college courses open and close within days!
- Selection often done by who applied first.
- Make sure your young people are prepped and ready.

College course levels

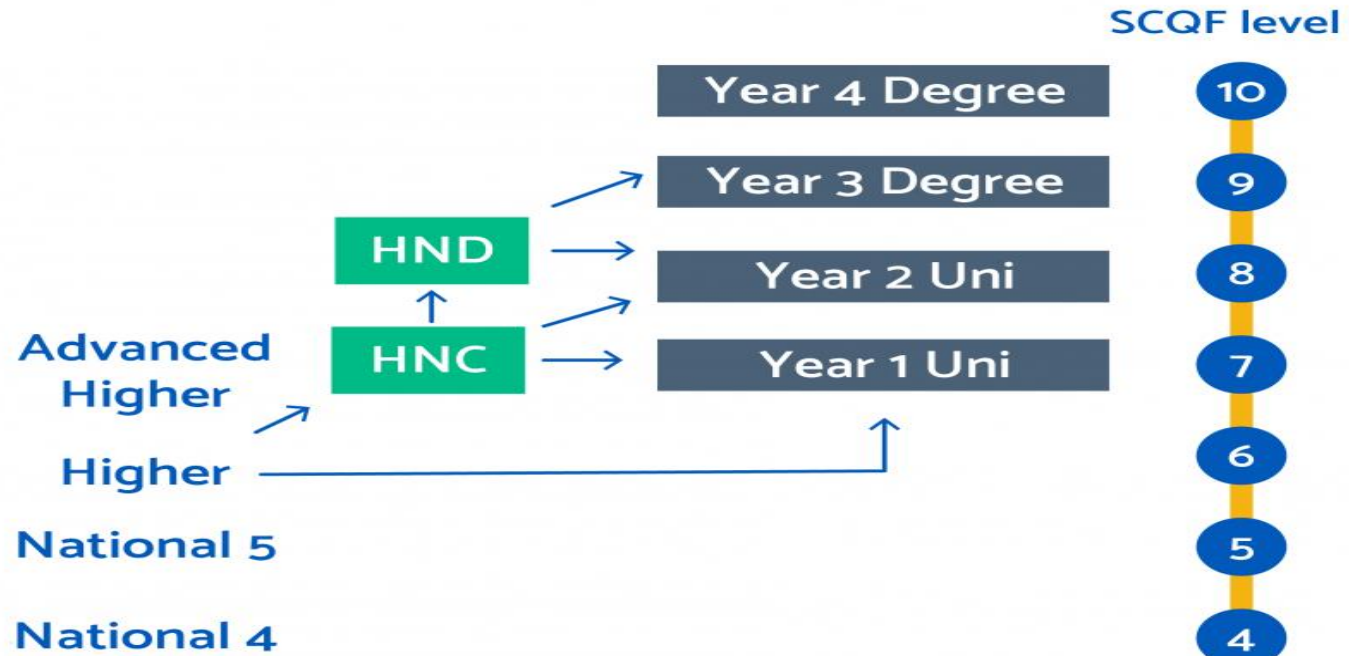

College Course Level	School Grades Required
Introduction / Access / NPA	Sometimes no grades required
NC / NQ / NPA	A range of national 4 or national 5's are required – This can lead on to HNC/D courses
HNC	1 + Highers are required – This can lead onto HND and some year one entry to university
HND	2 + Highers are required – This can lead onto year 1 or 2 for some university courses.

- This is a rough guide and you should check with each college/university course.
- This is the minimum entry requirement.

Articulation – what does it mean?

- An academic journey that begins with the study of a Higher National (HN) qualification at college and ends in a university degree course, without repetition of the same academic level
- Articulation is defined as a student gaining entry into first or second year of a degree with a Higher National Certificate (HNC) gained at college, or into second or third year with a Higher National Diploma (HND) gained at college.
- The Scottish Funding Council wants articulation to be an active and valid route to university study, with colleges and universities supporting the learner at every stage of their journey.
