Post-Communion Reflection

The Lord Bless You and Keep You

Blessing of our School Leavers' Prayer

Lord God,

as we take our final steps as a school family and begin new journeys beyond these doors, we ask You to stay close to us.

Through the example of St. Thomas Aquinas, fill us with curiosity to keep learning, with love to care deeply for others, with a sense of equality that sees the dignity in everyone, with aspiration to become all we are called to be, and with respect in all we say and do.

May we go forward with faith in our hearts, strength in our steps, and courage to be a light for others – lifting those around us, standing up for what is right, and leaving every place better than we found it.
And wherever we go, remind us – we belong to You, and to each other.

AMEN.
