The Interview

Interviews by Daisy and Catriona.

Jen

Q. Why did you choose to do this mural in our library?

A. This mural is about all the different languages that we have in this school, and we just wanted to celebrate them in this library. We also wanted to show you that books can take you anywhere!

Q. Who is your favourite artist?

A. My favourite artist is a nun called Sister Corita Kent.

Q. Why is she your favourite artist?

A. She turns the everyday into something extraordinary.

Lynsey

Q. What inspired to become an artist in the first place?

A. I have always loved art. I always loved drawing and making things, and I am in my happiest place when I make art.

Q. What is the best thing about working with school children?

A. Your imagination is amazing! I find it much more fun to work with school children than adults.

Q. Why is it more fun to work with children instead of adults?

A. Sometimes adults have forgotten how to play and use their imagination so I just find children more fun and interesting.

Megan

Q. Are you missing anything important to help us out here?

A. Well, it's my birthday today, but I'm not missing it - I'm spending it in an enjoyable way.

Q. What is your favourite style of art?

A. My favourite style of art is Bauhaus.

Q. Why is that your favourite style?

A. I like Bauhaus because it is very colourful and uses lots of geometric shapes.

Jen, Megan and Lynsey!

Thank you for all your help with our wonderful library!
