

GSA in Dunoon

Preview: Thurs 19 July, 5.30 – 7.30pm

Exhibition runs 20 July – 4 August 2012

An exhibition of selected work from The Glasgow School of Art's 2012 Degree Show, to be shown in the Burgh Hall, Dunoon. The exhibition will include both Fine Art and Design, and aims to bring the work to an audience who might not normally encounter it. The exhibition is curated by GSA graduate Sophie Manhire, with work by Hans Peter Auken Beck, Philip Blaikie, Kate Costigan, Rosie Healey, Claire Johnson, Robyn McLean, Alex H Millar, Theresa Moerman Ib, Emma Reid & Lisa Schmalstich. For more info on exhibition and travel to Dunoon please go to www.gsa.ac.uk/life/gsa-events/events/gsa-in-dunoon/

Burgh Hall, Dunoon

195 Argyll Street,
Dunoon PA23 7DD
Scotland, UK.
01369 703302
www.burghalldunoon.com

Opening Hours Burgh Hall:

Thurs – Sat, 12 – 4pm

Free admission to gallery

This card is available in alternative formats upon request.

GSA Exhibitions

0141 353 4500
exhibitions@gsa.ac.uk
www.gsa.ac.uk/exhibitions

THE GLASGOW SCHOOL OF ART

The Glasgow School of Art is a charity registered in Scotland, charity number SCO12490.
Image: Hans Peter Auken Beck, 'Elevation View of Britain' (2012), 645 Medium Format Fuji Film (scan), Inkjet Print, 58x41cm. Courtesy of the artist.

Burgh Hall Dunoon

