Creative Learning Network 2015/16

Date	Creative Catalysts	How Long Has This Been Going On?	Time	venue
Wednesday 7 th October 2015	Martin Robinson and David Cameron	We could have gone with another song for this - maybe Ian Dury's 'There ain't half some clever..', but decorum forbade it !!! Martin has written a really fascinating book called Trivium 21st Century. He tackles all sorts of massive questions about curriculum and learning and gives a really thoughtful history of educational thinking and development. He thinks his way around dichotomies and is relentlessly constructive. This is a superb opportunity to hear someone who is acquiring real influence over thinking about learning. More than that, Martin has a strong practical background in creative learning. This will be an occasion where we explore all the aspects of Martin Robinson and it should be memorable	4.00 - 4.30 arrival and coffee/tea 4.30 - 5.45 Creative Conversation 5.45/6pm onwards for wine and canapes	Venue Merchant's Hall Hanover Sreet Edinburgh EH2 2 EP

Lots more Creative Conversations, inspiring catalysts, interesting venues planned for 2015/16
