

The Global Learning Project Scotland invite you to attend

Global Citizenship Matters

A One Day Conference

for Secondary teachers in Scotland looking at the role education has to play in creating a more just and sustainable world.

23 January 2013

Royal Overseas League, 100 Princes Street, Edinburgh
10.00-4.15pm

Speakers

Colm Regan, Editor of '80:20 Development in an Unequal World'
Why world inequality matters and what it has to do with education

Education Scotland

The role of Global Learning in Scottish education today

Workshops

will support classroom practice, illustrate ways Global Citizenship can provide meaningful contexts for learning and support planning for global learning across the curriculum.

There will be space to reflect and discuss with colleagues on global issues, values and the role of education, followed by a panel discussion of teachers and Development Education practitioners.

Workshops will be led by teachers and practitioners from the British Red Cross, Christian Aid, Oxfam, 80:20 and Scotdec.

*This event is fully subsidised by the GLP and lunch will be provided.
Places are limited so book early to ensure you can participate in what we hope will be a lively and stimulating day.*

To book:

isabel@scotdec.org.uk