

Mum is having a baby

The baby might be a boy or a girl

If the baby is a boy, he will be my brother.

If the baby is a girl, she will be my sister.

We do not get to choose.

I might feel happy about having a brother or sister.

I might feel disappointed about having a brother or sister.

My feelings might change.

This is okay.

It is important that I talk about how I feel.

My family will still love me.
