

Friendships

Friends don't always agree with one another. That's okay. We have to remember to respond in a clear way to avoid confusion.

I say "I like football."

Okay

I'm not sure

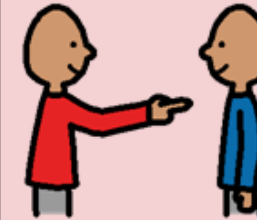

Not Okay

They say "I hate football"

They say "I'm not sure we have anything in common"

They say "Well I don't like you."

I say "I play Minecraft."

Okay

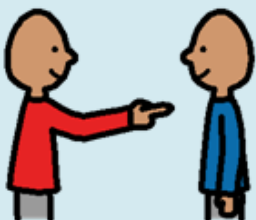

I'm not sure

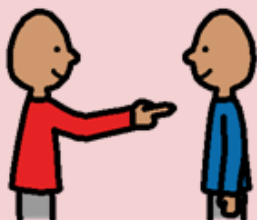

Not Okay

They say "I don't play minecraft"

They say "I don't know about minecraft"

They say "I hate people who play minecraft"
