

Parts of Speech

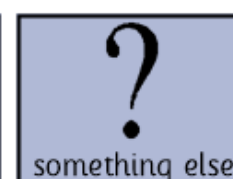

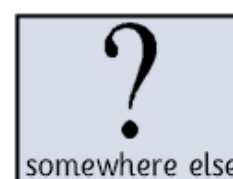

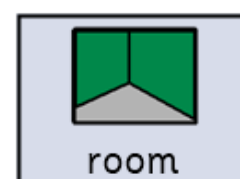

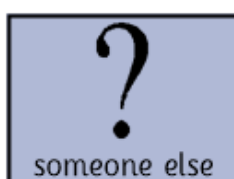

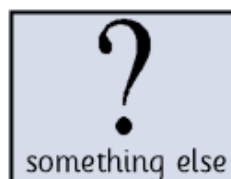

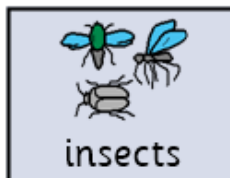

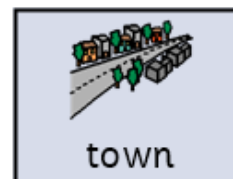

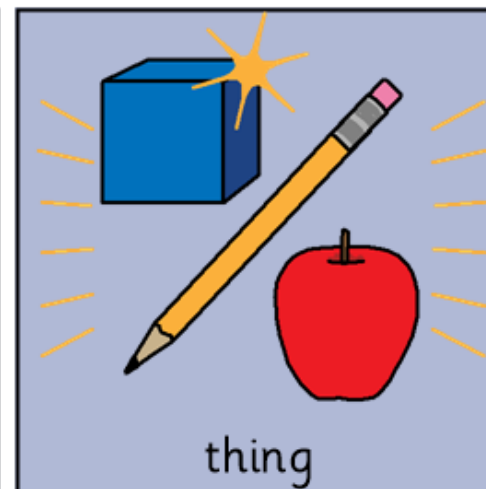

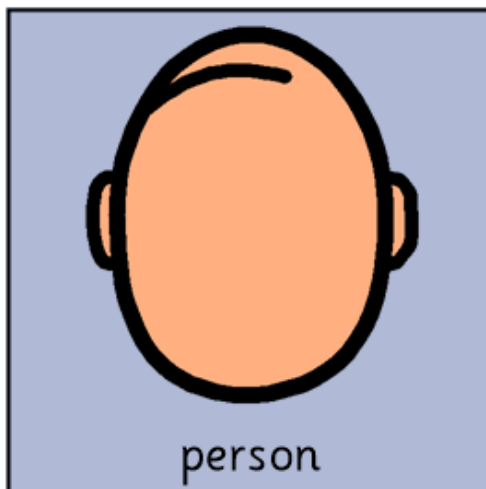

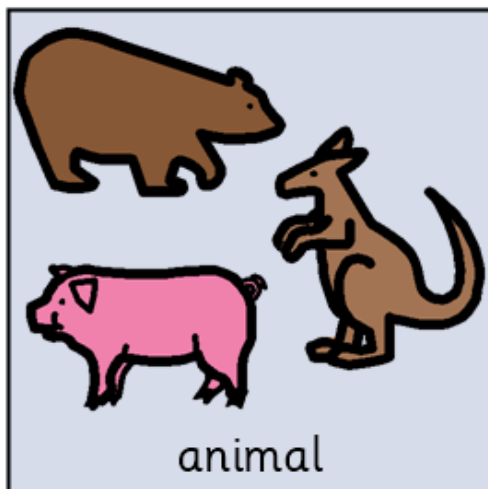

A noun

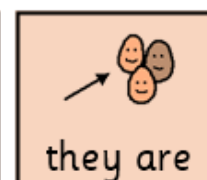

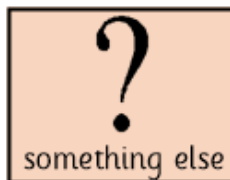

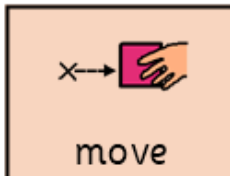

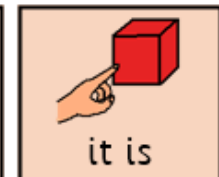

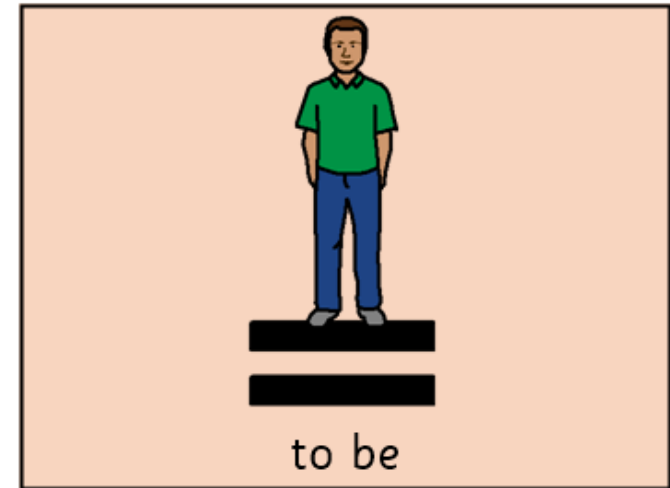

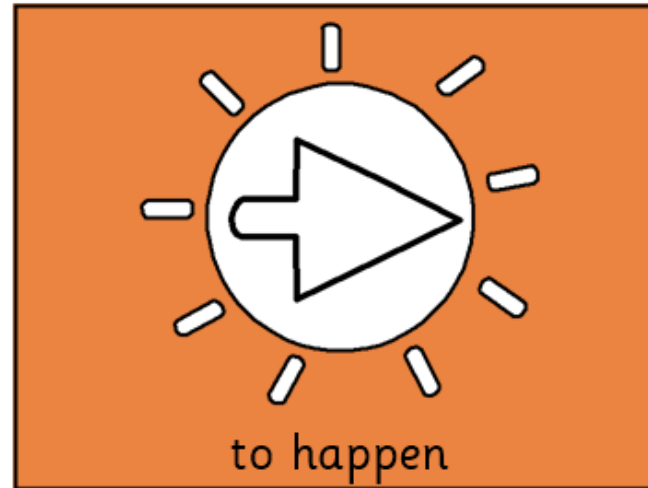

is the name of any

A verb

is a doing or action word

An adjective

describes or changes a noun or pronoun.

how many

which one

what kind

1

one

a

first

last

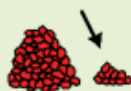

size

shape

some

few

next

other

colour

position

many

lots

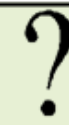

best

something else

age

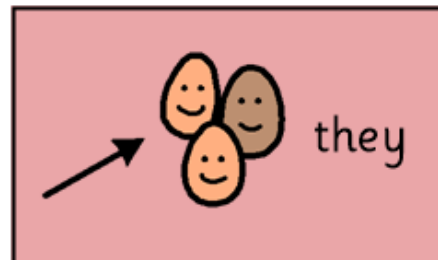

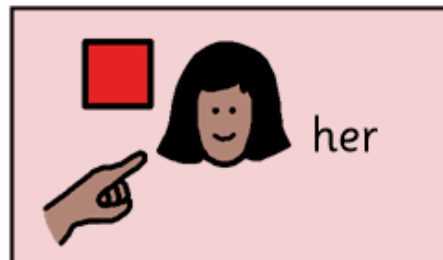

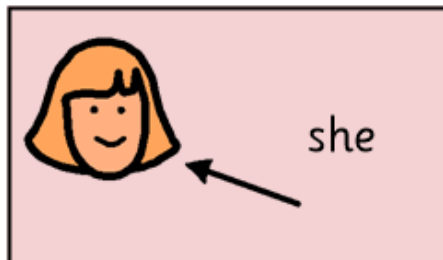

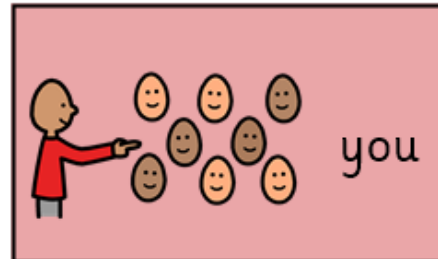

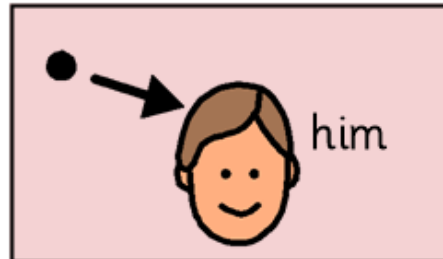

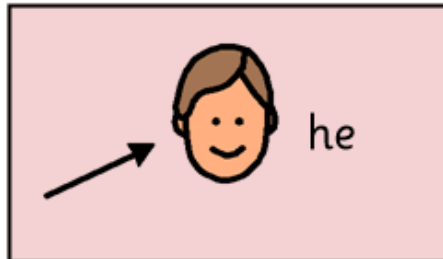

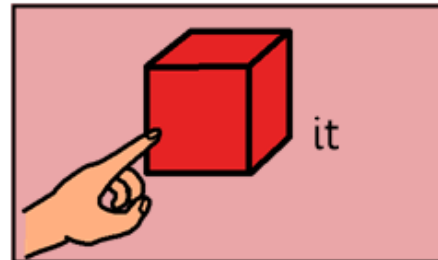

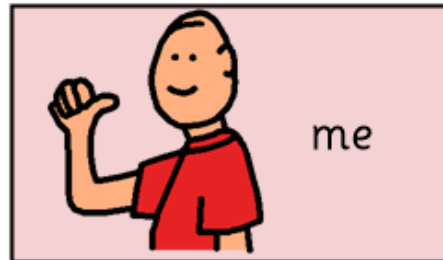

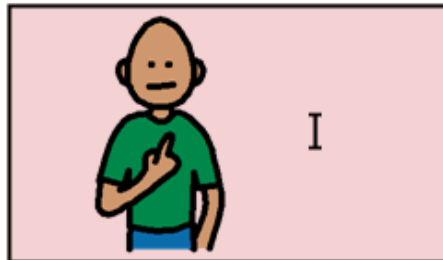

something else

A pronoun

describes or changes a noun or pronoun.

An adverb

describes or changes a verbs, adjectives or other adverbs.

how

How often or much?

when

where

slowly

quickly

sometimes

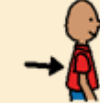

fairly

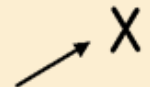

now

today

behind

there

quietly

loudly

never

almost

later

last year

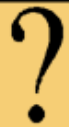

below

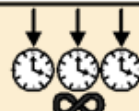

near

carefully

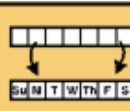

something else

always

?
something
else

next week

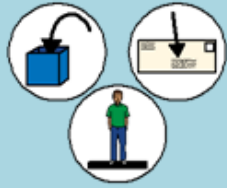

something else

here

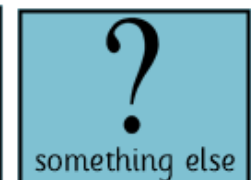

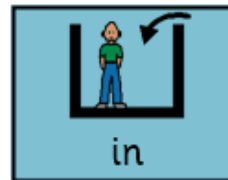

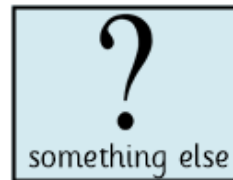

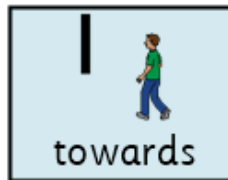

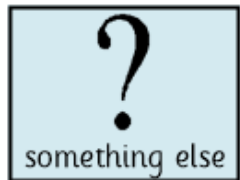

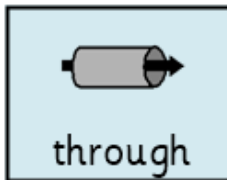

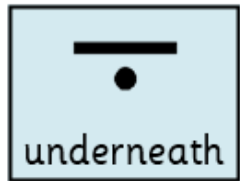

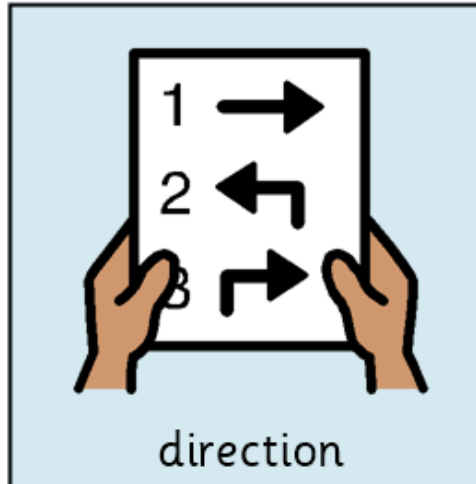

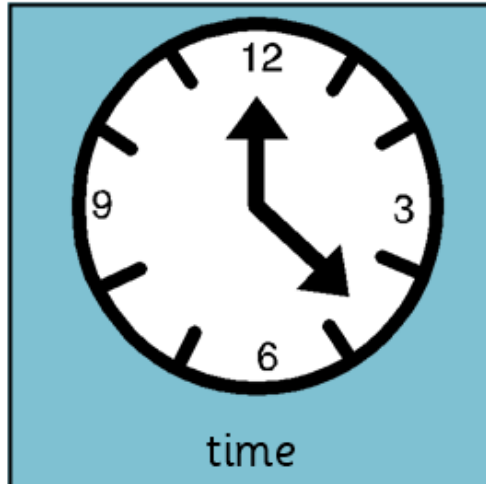

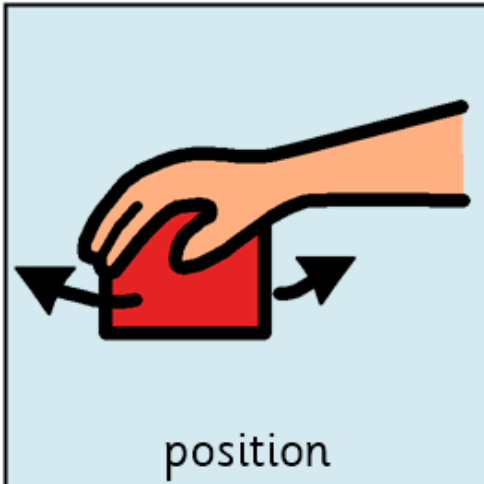

something else

A preposition

tells us the location of or the relationship to the noun or verb.

from the noun or verb.

The sentence can tell us what type of preposition it is.

IF
BUT

A conjunction

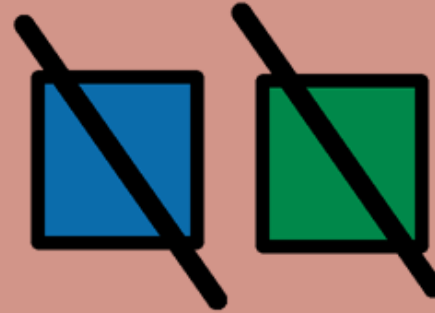

is a joining word in the sentence.

but

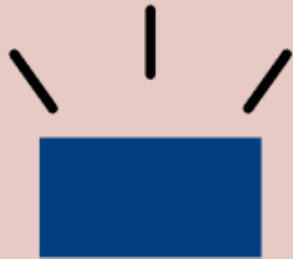

and

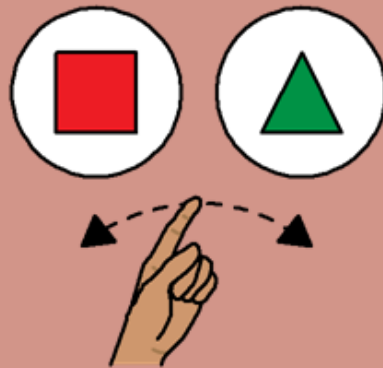

nor

yet

so

or

because

something else

An interjection

is a word or phrase that shows emotion.

aha

help!

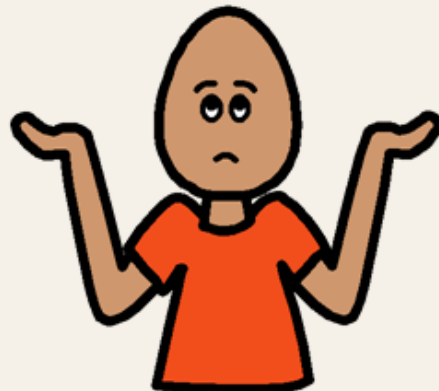

oops

oh dear!

aww!

huh?

er?

something else