444.44

Place Value

1	Units have 1 digit.
10	Tens have 2 digits.
100	Hundreds have 3 digits.
1000	Thousands have 4 digits.
10000	Ten thousands have 5 digits.
100000	Hundred thousands have 6 digits.
1 000 000	Millions have 7 digits.

444.44

Place Value

The dot in between numbers is called the decimal point.

 $\mathbb{Q} \cdot \mathbb{1}$ Tenths are the 1st digit after the decimal point.

 ${f Q}$ \cdot ${f Q}$ ${f 1}$ Hundredths are the 2nd digit after the decimal point.

 $\bigcirc \cdot \bigcirc \bigcirc \bigcirc 1$ Thousandths are the 3rd digit after the decimal point.

 \bigcirc \bullet \bigcirc \bigcirc \bigcirc \bigcirc \bigcirc \bigcirc Ten Thousandths are the 4th digit after the decimal point.

 $\underline{\mathbb{Q}}$ • $\underline{\mathbb{Q}}$ $\underline{\mathbb{Q}}$ $\underline{\mathbb{Q}}$ $\underline{\mathbb{Q}}$ Hundred Thousandths are the 5th digit after the decimal point.

Communication Friendly @SchoolsNlc NC Made with Boardmaker and