

Consent

What is consent?

Giving permission for someone to do something to me or about me.

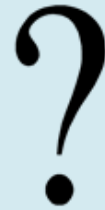

take a photo

share my information

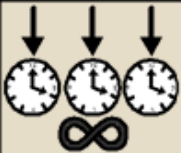

touch me

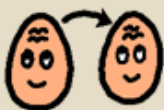

something else

IMPORTANT

Consent is not permanent.

I can change my mind.

Consent be taken away at any point.

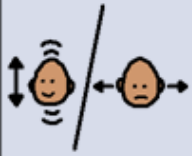

I can say "Stop" or "No".

I do not need to explain why.

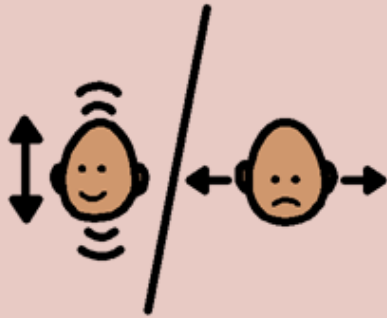

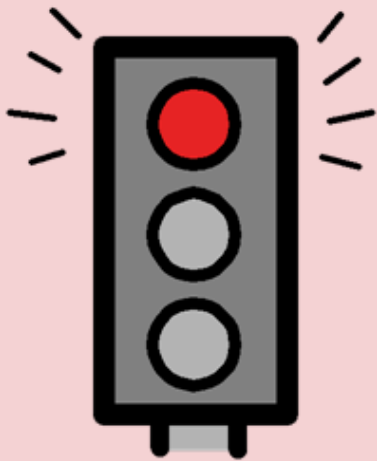

Consent

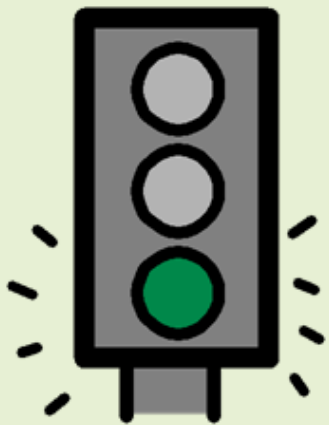

When on a road and there are traffic lights, we know they can change to red at any point and we must stop.

Consent works like this too. Although it may be okay to go ahead, it can change and we should be ready to stop.

Stop immediately.

Continue but prepare to stop.
