

Hormones are chemicals inside the body.

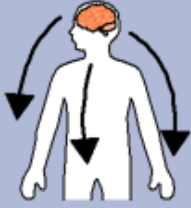

Hormones are like the body's messengers.

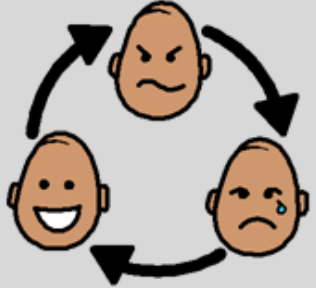

Hormones come from the endocrine system.

Hormones tell the body and cells what to do.

Hormones

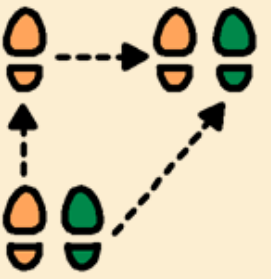

Hormones control our moods.

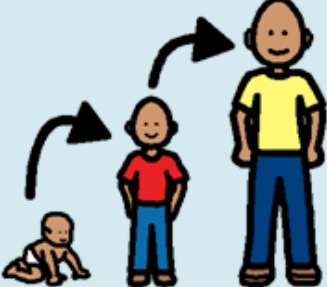

The glands in the body release the hormones.

Hormones control our metabolism.

Hormones travel to different parts of the body.

Hormones control our growth.

Hormones control our sexual and reproductive health.

