

General Election

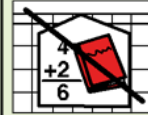

what

People vote for the political party they want to run the country.

when

Thursday the 4th of July

where

At polling stations across the UK.

Who can vote?

People on the electoral register

18

aged 18 or over

British citizens

a qualifying Commonwealth citizen

Republic of Ireland citizen with UK address

Who cannot vote?

a member of the House of Lords

convicted prisoners

people found guilty of electoral offences

children

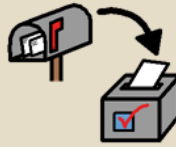

some others

How can I vote?

in person at a polling station

postal vote

by proxy

What do I need to vote at a polling station?

be registered on the electoral register

Photo ID

