

Differentiation

Differentiation is talked about frequently in schools.

Differentiation is adapting to accommodate the academic needs and interests of learners.

What can be differentiated in a classroom?

What the learner needs to learn

How the learner learns

How the learner shows their learning

How the space can be used

Here are some examples of what can be differentiated. This is not an exhaustive list.

Task

Grouping

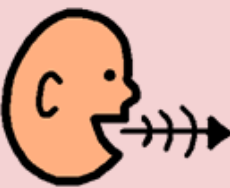

Resources

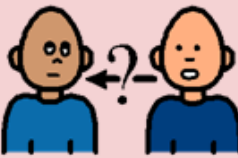

Support

Pace

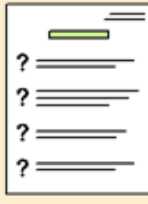

Dialogue

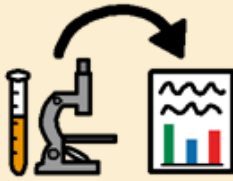

Questioning

Explanation

Assessment

Outcome

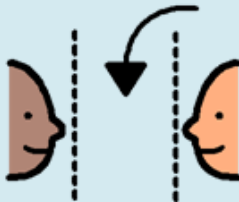

Seating

Homework

Content

Physical Space

Something else?

