

CP Investigates...
You Are A Designer

Once you have chosen your poster take a moment and look at it closely, then use these questions to help practice your eye-for-design!

What stands out the most on this poster? How has the designer made it stand out?

Who do you think the poster is for?

What is the main message in the poster?

Does the poster feel positive or negative? What makes it feel that way?

How would you make the poster better?

Give the poster a rating out of 10 and tell us about your answer:

