

Adult Support and Protection Training Plan – 2023

Please see below for all core ASP training courses being delivered in 2023. The plan is colour coded to assist in identifying which training will be suitable and relevant to your role. For detailed information and to submit your application, please click on the flyer. All virtual/online courses require you to access via a laptop, tablet or desktop P.C. with a webcam and audio capability. Relevant Teams/diary invites will be forwarded to you via email to confirm that a place has been booked.

Should you have any queries/require further information please email either Forth Valley ASP training co-ordinator:

h.brown@falkirk.gov.uk or ASP training admin support: asptraining@falkirk.gov.uk

The General Contact Workforce	The Specific Contact Workforce	The Intensive Contact Workforce
The general contact workforce is defined as those who, as part of their job are likely to come into contact with adults including adults at risk and other family members and carers.	The specific contact workforce is defined as those who: carry out direct work with adults, and specifically adults at risk and their families and carers; and / or form more in-depth relationships with them; and / or provide specific services to them.	The intensive contact workforce is defined as those who have specific designated responsibility for adult protection issues as part of their role (e.g. where this is linked to their post, or where they are a Council Officer or Lead Professional); and / or those who will be involved in undertaking adult protection investigations or working with complex cases (e.g. providing particular forms of support relating directly to adult protection).
