MyLearning Journal

What is this?

This is the MyLearning journal of Dean McGrandles. MyLearning is a service provided by the SSSC which makes it easy for people to record their continuous professional learning and share it with others. For more information on MyLearning please visit www.mylearning.scot .

Title

learning example for Supported Year

Notes

This was very easy to do. I created an account linked to my SSSC registration and created this journal entry. I've taken a picture of the Falkirk Council logo but could just have easily taken pictures of mind maps I've created, or interesting works I've produced to help reflection. I could have uploaded a video also, or some reflective discussion about an experience.
