

A Whole School Approach to Loss, Grief and Bereavement

Annual training day jointly run by Glasgow Educational Psychology Service and Prince and Princess of Wales Hospice

When?	Monday 20th May, 09:00-16:00 . Please ensure you are able to attend all day before securing your place.
Where?	This training will be delivered in-person at: Prince and Princess of Wales Hospice, 20 Dumbreck Road, Bellahouston, G41 5BW.
Session Aims:	Session will focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The theoretical background on loss, grief and bereavement as well as new resources available.</li><li>• Providing an opportunity to hear form our guest speakers and their experiences of loss and bereavement within their setting.</li><li>• Providing an opportunity for reflection, a forum to ask any questions about your own context and some space for self-care.</li></ul> The course will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Provide practical resources and ideas that can be used in your context.</li><li>• Provide a forum to discuss challenges when working with children and young people experiencing grief.</li><li>• Increase practitioner confidence in speaking to children and young people about loss and bereavement.</li></ul>
How to book a place?	This course is now live on CPD Manager where you can book your place. There are 30 spaces available.
Important information:	Please note: there is parking available on site but this is very limited. Please consider using public transport or planning ahead for parking nearby. There will be tea and coffee available, but lunch will not be provided, so please bring your own with lunch you.
Please note:	Please note that the topics discussed can be emotive and participants are reminded to ensure they look after their own mental health and wellbeing throughout. If participants feel they need any further support please discuss support available within your establishment with your line manager, contact your GP or call FREE helpline Breathing Space on 0800 83 85 87.