

Early Level Curricular Resources

The below documents support practitioners to plan, deliver, assess and track teaching and learning across the Early Level, which begins in the ante-pre school year and lasts until the end of P1 or later for some. Remember to think 'stage not age' and know that children can be at different stages in different areas of their development. This is especially true for children with complex needs and neurodivergent learners. You can use these documents in combination to ensure you are able to plan, deliver, assess and track progress for all learners in all areas of their development.

Experiences and outcomes are a set of clear and concise 'I can' statements about children's learning and progression in each curriculum area. They are used to help plan learning and assess and track progress .	Sets out the national standards for each of the 8 curricular areas. Use to assess and track progress towards achievement of a level and to support overall professional judgement of when a learner has achieved a level.	Use to assess and track progress across the Early Level in curricular areas.	Use to make links between practice, theory and policy guidance to reinforce aspects of high-quality provision and the critical role practitioners play.	Use to plan learning and assess progress for children from birth to three, or older children who developmentally would benefit from a more sensory-based curriculum.	Use to assess and track progress for learners with complex needs whose successes at pre-Early Level are not captured by using CfE Benchmarks.
