INCLUSION SUPPORT AND DEVELOPMENT GROUP

2026-27

What happens in the Inclusion Support and Development Group?

- You will attend six sessions, in a group of around 25 led by an EP and a SLT, focused on developing your skills in successfully including children with additional support needs (ASN).
- You will have the opportunity to discuss issues related to children you are working with, with your peers and other professionals.
- You will get the chance to learn from invited professionals such as OTs, EAL staff, EYSS staff, as suits the group's needs.
- You will be expected to try things out between sessions and reflect on your practice.
- You will get a warm welcome and a hot drink!

"The sessions were amazing, great strategies and advice given"

Participant, 2025-26 Group.

"Approaching challenges with a more positive approach and hearing experiences and ideas from other practitioners was helpful too."

Participant, 2025-26 Group.
