OVER THE SUMMER, READ, LEARN AND DISCOVER

GLOW email: gw14macphersonstephe@glow.sch.uk

Welcome to Mr. Mac's Newsletter to keep you in touch with the school library. The summer holidays are upon us, but it is a fantastic time to explore the world of books. I want to share the experience with you. If anybody has a book review or has written about a favourite character or drawn some pictures, illustrations etc and they want to share with me and the rest of the school, I am happy to include them in the newsletter. Send them onto me on GLOW.

In this month's newsletter we have information about the Carnegie Award, newly released books, information about Glasgow Libraries' Online Opportunities for you to explore your favourite books and authors.

CARNEGIE AWARD WINNER

This year's Carnegie Book Awards is still going ahead. This year's winner will be announced on the 17th of June. Mr. Mac will proudly announce the winner in next month's issue. The shortlist for this year's award includes:

The Black Flamingo by Dean Atta,

Nowhere on Earth by Nick Lake

Lark by Anthony McGowan

Patron Saints of Nothing by Randy Ribay

Lampie written and illustrated by Annet Schaap

Voyages in the Underworld of Orpheus Black by Marcus Sedgwick and Julian Sedgwick, ill

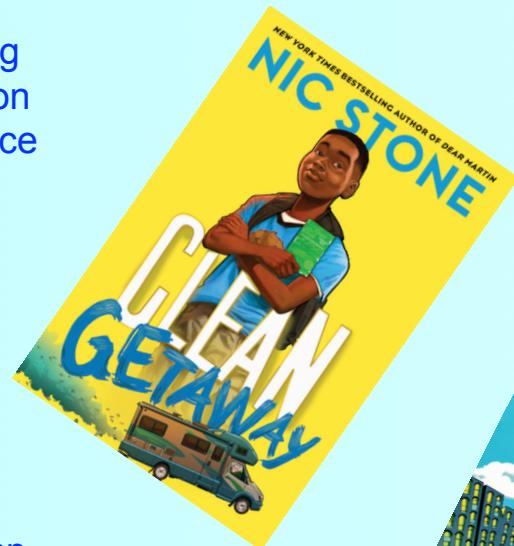

On the Come Up by Angie Thomas

Girl. Boy. Sea. By Chris Vick

You still have time to read these books before the winner is announced. Remember you can still borrow books online with Glasgow's Libraries. If you lost your library card, remember you can contact a teacher who will get in touch with me to help you out.

IN YOUR FICTION?

Remember folks, your local libraries are still available to you online, over the Internet. You can still borrow your favourite books or try new ones electronically using the following web address:

<https://www.glasgowlife.org.uk/libraries/online-library>

The web address should take you to a webpage similar to this one:

Remember that all you need to access this treasure trove of discovery is your library card and pin number. If you have lost your card or can't remember your pin, ask your teacher and they will be in touch with me to help you. Also, there are a wealth of online school library resources for you to access online. The web address is:
