

Learning for Sustainability e-bulletin

January 2018

Please forward to those who may be interested.

Received this from someone else? Sign up to receive it directly.

Follow @EdScotLFS on Twitter

Join our LfS community in Glow: <http://bit.ly/lfsglow>

Scottish Education Awards – now open for applications and nominations! Help us celebrate the achievements of your setting. Apply for the Learning for Sustainability or STEM categories before 14th February.

News

- Raising attainment and improving outcomes through LfS and outdoor learning.
- Ready for emergencies? Promoting community resilience through social studies.
- Connecting Classrooms online professional learning course starting 19 January.
- Policy briefings – background and impact of LfS and outdoor learning in Scotland.
- Handy links to key LfS resources and websites in Scotland.
- New Explorer's Guide to the Lost Words nature book is now available.
- Date for your diary – John Muir's 180th birthday celebrations, 14-22 April.
- See how LfS and outdoor learning feature in the new Suitability Guidance for the learning estate.
- Marine Renewable energy – free resources and posters available for your classroom.
- Download the Realising and Recognising Children's Rights professional learning resource.
- 15,000 scientists issue warning to humanity and call for more outdoor learning and sustainability.