Classroom Blogs

Dear Parent/Carer,

Please find the link below to our new school blog!

<https://blogs.glowscotland.org.uk/glowblogs/maxwellton/>

This is currently in the process of being built and we hope it will be a place that you find useful for finding information.

Each class within the school has a class blog. This is updated weekly by the classroom teachers and provides photographs and a little bit of information as to what the children have been learning that week.

You will find your child's classroom blog under the 'Classes' tag.

The teachers will add to this each week and hopefully it will give you a little insight into the classroom especially as parents are unable to visit our school at the moment.

Please speak to your child about the blog and all that they have been learning this week.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Jill Laing
