

Subject	What will we learn?	What skills will we develop?	How will we be assessed?	What homework will we have?	What experiences/extracurricular clubs will be offered?
Mods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What is meant by society, community and citizenship</li> <li>• How people can be good citizens</li> <li>• How people are interdependent across the world</li> <li>• What human rights we have and how we got them</li> <li>• Why some people don't get their rights in the UK</li> <li>• Why some people don't get their rights worldwide</li> <li>• How the UN and other agencies work to ensure people get their rights</li> <li>• How Govt, Police and other agencies help us get our rights in the UK</li> <li>• What we can do to help others get their rights</li> <li>• Focus on China: How are Politics, Human Rights, Justice and Education different from the UK?</li> </ul>	Literacy: Writing developed answers Using evidence to justify responses Evaluating our sources of evidence Writing detailed reports Numeracy: Analysing statistics and graphs Using statistics to justify an argument DYW Understanding the role of different workers in protecting human rights LfS Human rights Gender inequality Racial inequality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Extended writing report – Malala</li> <li>• S1 KU test</li> <li>• News article - China</li> </ul>	Monthly 'news flash' homework task	Rosshall Pupil Parliament S1 Charities club tbc Speaker visit – PC McKie