

Play Pedagogy Connector

The logo for SEIC (South East Inclusion Connectors) is a blue circle containing the white text 'SEIC'.

Have you or your school identified play pedagogy at P1-3 as a priority for development?

Would you like to learn and collaborate with practitioners across the South East?

The Play Pedagogy Connector can offer:

- Professional learning sessions on key aspects of play pedagogy, delivered by SEIC Pedagogy Pioneers
 - Signposting to relevant professional reading, supported by professional discussion
 - Opportunity for 1-1 or small group coaching/mentoring, including using virtual platforms to deliver peer-to-peer support

How can SEIC Connectors benefit my school/setting?

- ✓ Connect with others exploring similar focus areas
- ✓ 1-1/small group opportunities to collaborate
- ✓ Regular sessions for SLT and staff exploring key themes
- ✓ Hear how other schools/settings have made progress
- ✓ Opportunities to visit schools/settings
