KPS VALUES
K - Kindness
P - Positivity
S - Success

Play is everywhere in
KPS.....indoors, outdoors and from
P1 to P7!

SHARING PRACTICE:

- Inverclyde 'Improving Our Play' Day (April 2024)
- HT Play Associate Role (Session 2023/24)
- Presentation to St Patrick's PS re Playful Approaches (May 2024)

IMPACT:

- Effective Partnerships (Inverclyde Play Associates, Play CMOs)
- Development of leadership roles and pupil voice (House Captains and JLT planning Fun Friday, Shared Play opportunities, children using floor books to plan play experiences)
- Leadership at all levels (Staff Strategic Teams)
- Positive Feedback at Inverclyde Peer Review (January 2023)
- Positive feedback at HMIe Thematic Inspection on Curriculum (March 2023)
- Up-skilling of staff (Inverclyde Play training, Inverclyde Play Network, Mindstretchers training)
- High quality indoor and outdoor play learning environments (investment in new resources and training)
- P1-2/3 have access to outdoor play at all times (free flow)
- Sustained high levels of engagement and attainment
- Staff report the positive impact play has on the children's social and emotional well-being (builds friendships, increases independence and autonomy)
- Staff report the positive impact on children's skills development (problem solving, independence, risky play, creativity, writing, communication, leadership)
